Jim Snidero is one of the best jazz alto saxophonists on the planet. For the cost of a movie and popcorn, you can hear the best. Take it from me, you won't be disappointed -- he is truly dazzling! Based in NYC, Jim has been called upon to add his alto touch to the Frank Sinatra Orchestra (for four years), the Akiyoshi Orchestra (for 20 years) and extensive tours with the Mingus Big Band (who blew us all away in '06). Rock-jazzer Sting, piano men – Billy Joel & Elton John – and many other big stars have gotten in on the sound as well. On his own, the New York Times considers him “dazzling,” Downbeat dubbed him “a master musician”. His latest CD Tippin' has been on top of the jazz charts for several months. Join us for a fun evening and enjoy one of jazz's premier alto sax players!

Artists' Quarter

Hamm Building • 408 St. Peter • St. Paul

We're located in the Historic Hamm Building in Downtown St. Paul. We are at the corner of St. Peter Street and the 7th Place Pedestrian Mall. We're in the same building as Great Waters Brewing Company and the Park Square Theatre. Enter on the pedestrian mall side. Our entrance is between the Park Square Theatre and Great Waters. After entering the building, head downstairs (or take the elevator).

How to get there from the west metro:

Take I-94 east to the 10th Street exit.
Take 10th street to St. Peter Street (just past the hospital).
Turn right on St. Peter Street. We're a few blocks down on the left, one block past Mickey's Diner.

How to get there from the east metro:

Take I-94 west to 6th Street.
Turn right on Wall Street.

How to get there from the south metro:

Take I-35E north to 11th Street.
Turn right on St. Peter Street. We're a few blocks down on the left, one block past Mickey's Diner.

How to get there from the north metro:

Take I-35E south to 10th Street.
Turn left onto Jackson Street.
Turn right onto 7th Street.

MapQuest

Click here to view our location using MapQuest. Note that the MapQuest star is on the south corner of the building, and we're actually on the northwest corner. (See the yellow star in the map on this page.)

Where to park:

There is a convenient surface (pay) parking lot on the same block at the Artists' Quarter. Circle around the block by heading east on St. Peter to 5th Street. Turn left on 5th Street, then left again on Wabasha. The surface lot is across the street from Marshall Field's. This is on the same block as the club, simply walk around the Walgreen's and Shinder's down the pedestrian mall. The lot has a pay machine, and the cost is usually $3, higher during special events (hockey, etc.). The machine takes credit cards. Parking ramps abound in the area. The Lawson Ramp (in the building where Kincaid's is located) is one of the most convenient. Go past the club on St. Peter Street to 5th Street, turn left on 5th Street, and the ramp entrance is on the left.
